

CHATEAU DE HOOGENWEERTH

[BIZ: Maastricht, August 9]

The Maastricht Convention Bureau has been joined in its foundation by Kasteel De Hoogenweerth, bringing the total number of members up to 45. The Maastricht Convention Bureau is a foundation that promotes Maastricht and the surrounding area as a destination for conventions and corporate meetings both in the Netherlands as well as abroad. In addition to that, the foundation offers objective, independent advice and assistance to people who would like to organize a convention, meeting, incentive or event in Maastricht and the surrounding area.

The Maastricht Convention Bureau is pleased to welcome Kasteel De Hoogenweerth. Director Marcel Knols says: "We consciously aim at high-quality cooperation with venues and services in Maastricht and the surrounding area. This is very important not only for those booking meetings who can make use of our services entirely free of charge, but for our participants as well. They can cooperate more successfully together and do business with one another as participants in the foundation.
