

Maastricht guide to this charming variety

Maastricht, the oldest city of Holland, is a hidden treasure, famous for its historic town with gastronomic atmosphere (5 Michelin star restaurants), the caves, the river Maas and the green hilly surroundings. The ideal place for a sportive, cultural or gastronomic incentive!

Maastricht is also an attractive city to organise numerous business meetings and events. Located in the heart of Europe, the city is easy to reach - within 1-hour from the cities and airports of Brussels, Düsseldorf and Cologne.

'Seeing, doing, tasting'

Maastricht excels in compactness, diversity and atmosphere: historical fortifications combined with modern architecture, design and classic venues, casemates, castles, museums, too numerous to mention. The many squares, bars, restaurants, side walk terraces, the generous atmosphere and hospitality make Maastricht a nice city to stay after your meeting as well.

All this is combined with beautiful green surroundings in the hilly South-Limburg province, most suitable for incentives, social and partner programmes. Whether you prefer cultural, culinary, playful or sportive programmes, they all are available. Tailor made or more standardised. In short: programmes to suit all needs! Please, send an email to info@maastrichtconventionbureau.com and you will receive by post a free copy of 'Maastricht for Groups'. This guide is a collection of original ideas and tips for group activities in and around the city. All activities are easily divided into the categories Seeing, Doing and Tasting.
